

LIVES OF TWO MORE TAXI MEN ARE ATTEMPTED

DAN BLACKBURN AND CLAYTON ELLIOTT WERE SHOT AT FROM ARCH.

BULLET HIT BLACKBURN CAR

It Is Believed Shooting Is the Work of Demented Man—Officers Are At Work.

The third attempt within a week to shoot a taxicab driver occurred this morning at about 1:30 o'clock when a pot-shot was taken at Daniel Blackburn as he drove his machine under the arch enroute to the Northwestern depot. The bullet struck the running board of the machine and stuck in the cork matting. It was of 22 calibre.

Mr. Blackburn, as he approached the viaduct, thought of the two previous attempts to shoot taxi drivers, and looked up a the top of the archway and could see no one, but just as he was going under the viaduct he heard the report of a gun and heard the bullet strike his machine. He hurriedly drove away and telephoned the police, who made a search along the Illinois Central right-of-way but were unable to find the guilty party.

Must Be Demented.

The gunman is believed to be demented, in that he seems to have no particular grudge against any particular driver, but shoots at them promiscuously. Another strange feature is that he knows all the machines driven by taxicab men and has not mistaken anyone else.

Shot at Elliott.

Clayton Elliott was shot at late Saturday night while he was driving to his home on Central Place in his automobile. The gun man, however, did not show as good marksmanship

COMPTON FARMER SERIOUSLY INJURED

WILLIAM HOLDREN FELL WITH SCAFFOLD SATURDAY MORNING.

William Holdren, a prominent farmer of Compton, was seriously hurt Saturday morning when the scaffolding on which he was working broke, precipitating him to the ground. The fall rendered him unconscious and he has been in a semi-conscious condition since, but it is hoped no permanent harm will result and that Mr. Holdren will soon be on the way to recovery. His spine was injured quite badly and it will be some time before he will be able to leave his home. Mr. Holdren was shingling a corn crib on his farm when the temporary scaffolding broke.

Fellow Commissioners Eulogize Late Officer

The city council this morning passed the following resolutions eulogistic of the late Commissioner M. J. Gannon.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God in His infinite wisdom to remove from our midst our honored and worthy fellow member, Martin J. Gannon, and

Whereas, The pleasant and intimate relations which for four years he has held with this Board of Commissioners, as a fellow Commissioner make it eminently fitting that we should place upon record our feelings of appreciation of his services and regret for his loss, therefore be it

ROBERT R. PHILLIPS

The present efficient deputy sheriff whom the republicans have nominated to succeed Sheriff C. P. Reid, and whose election is conceded by all the shrewd followers of politics.

Mr. Phillips has demonstrated during his incumbency of the chief deputyship that in every way he is fitted and qualified to preside as the chief peace officer of the county. He has always been foremost when there was hard work to be done, he knows the details of the office and its requirements perfectly and will beyond all doubt make one of the most capable sheriffs Lee county has ever had.

His acquaintanceship extends all over the county, he enjoys the supreme confidence of attorneys and business men, and in fact his election will be but a merited honor.

JOHN S. HAUSER HAS PASSED AWAY

PROMINENT CITIZEN ENTERED FINAL REST EARLY SATURDAY EVENING.

FUNERAL TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Masons Will Be In Charge of the Last Services at his Late Residence.

The many friends of John S. Hauser were deeply grieved to learn that he had passed from this life on Saturday, October 24, at 7 p. m., to the eternal life beyond. Their grief was dimmed, however, by the fact that he had passed from pain and suffering to peace and rest. He has been a patient sufferer for several years, striving always to keep the knowledge of his pain from others and presenting a cheerful smile and word that he might not lay his burden upon others.

PASSENGER TRAIN PLOWED INTO WRECK OF LADEN STOCK CARS

NORTHWESTERN'S DENVER SPECIAL NEAR CATASTROPHE SUNDAY EVENING.

MANY CATTLE AND HOGS KILLED

Five Carloads of Stock Derailed in Front of Speeding Passenger Train.

Passengers on the Northwestern's Denver Special, due here at 8:40 p. m., were thrown into a panic Sunday night, when, while the train was speeding along at the rate of sixty miles an hour between Malta and Creston there was a sudden grinding of brakes, the perceptible buckling of the cars and the agonized groans of cattle and hogs.

The swiftly moving passenger train had plowed into a carload of cattle which had been derailed directly in front of it; and but for the instant action of the engineer the passenger train, with its heavy human cargo, might have been added to the wreckage.

Cattle Killed.

Just as an eastbound stock train and the passenger were approaching each other in the darkness, a broken journal caused the derailment of a cattle car, directly in front of the oncoming passenger. Four other cars, three containing cattle and one laden with hogs, followed the wrecked car, and as the heavy passenger engine plowed into the wreckage pandemonium broke loose among the injured cattle.

Both tracks were blocked with the wreckage, and it was necessary to kill many of the injured beasts, two of which were found under the big passenger locomotive. Traffic was delayed five and one-half hours.

PROGRESSIVE PAPER ADMITS POOR OUTLOOK

CHICAGO TRIBUNE FAILS TO OBSERVE ANY PROGRESSIVE ADVANCEMENT.

CONCERNING SEN. SHERMAN

Says Robins' Race Can Only Work to Benefit of Roger Sullivan.

The Chicago Tribune has been the greatest and most powerful supporter of the Progressive party since that party was formed in 1912, and has put up a great battle to rear it to maturity. It must be conceded that the Tribune has a very shrewd staff of political observers and that it has seldom happened that their prognostications have been incorrect; and they are relied upon by wise politicians steadfastly.

The Tribune yesterday published a general survey of the congressional political situation, which shows conclusively that the Tribune concedes that the Progressive party is going into decline and that the Republican party is coming back.

There are at present eighteen progressive congressmen and the Tribune does not see any prospect of a gain in that party's strength in congress.

There are at present 127 Republican congressmen. The Tribune concedes that the next congress will contain 183 Republican members, while the Democrats will have their party representation reduced from 250 to 222, allowing a net Republican gain of 56 seats.

Regarding the election of a United States Senator from Illinois the Tribune puts the blame for the possible defeat of Sherman upon "Single Tax" Robins in the following words:

"At this stage of the campaign Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman, Republican, holds an advantage. His lead is in constant danger through the threatened inroads of Raymond Robins Progressive. Continued increase of Robins' strength may be expected following a second trip to Illinois by Colonel Roosevelt, will work to the ultimate benefit of Roger Sullivan, Democrat. Sherman has tolerably unified the Republican party at his back.

"Illinois—Lawrence Y. Sherman (incumbent), Republican, has as his principal competitor Roger Sullivan, Democrat, and may be defeated by Sullivan because of the candidacy of Raymond Robins, Progressive."

The situation in the 13th congressional district, from the Tribune's point of view, certainly is a great truth expressed in a few words:

"Thirteenth district—Representative John C. McKenzie, Republican, is the probable winner against Frank M. Goodwin Democrat, and Isaac N. Evans, Progressive."

TOMORROW LAST REGISTRATION DAY

VOTERS MUST SEE THAT THEIR NAMES ARE RECORDED ON THE LISTS.

Tomorrow is the last registration day before the general election Tuesday, Nov. 3, and accordingly judges of the various precincts will be at the respective polling places from 9 a. m. until 8 o'clock p. m., which will give every voter, male and female, opportunity to see that their names are on the registry list. It is absolutely imperative that all voters be registered, otherwise they will be compelled to swear in their votes at the general election.

LOSS OF LIFE ON FRANCO BELGIAN BORDER IS AWFUL

TERRIFIC FIGHTING STILL CONTINUES WITH NO DECISIVE TURN.

ENGLAND WARNS SHIPPERS

Says Shipments to Neutral Countries Must Be to Specific Consignee.

GERMANS RETREAT.

The latest news from Petrograd is that the Germans continue their retreat; have evacuated Lodz, Poland. The German attempt to check the Russian advance has failed.

ENGLAND ISSUES WARNING TO SHIPPERS

Washington, D. C., Oct. 26.—The British ambassador has informed Acting Secretary of State Lansing that England will not interfere with neutral commerce when shipments are properly consigned. He said cotton will not be considered contraband, and will not be stopped even if consigned to hostile countries; but that oil is of great use in motors, airplanes and submarines and has been listed as contraband.

The ambassador issued a warning from his government to American shippers to consign all cargoes bound for neutral countries to specific consignee.

PROGS HAD RALLY THEN THE FROST

THIRTY-SEVEN PEOPLE ATTENDED ANTE-FROST SESSION AT ASHTON.

(Special to the Telegraph.)

Ashton, Oct. 26.—The Progressives had a rally here Saturday evening; but it is denied that the first frost of the season was due to the meeting. Despite the fact that the streets were crowded with people during the evening the Progs got just thirty-seven out to hear their drum corps and speeches, and fully a third of that number were Republicans.

Rochelle Man Beaten And Robbed Here Saturday Eve

Charles Martin was beaten and robbed by a number of men on Fifth street between Central Place and Depot Avenue, at about 1 o'clock Sunday morning as he was walking to the Northwestern depot with two companions. When Martin, who resides at Rochelle, was attacked, he claims his companions fled leaving him alone with the thugs.

Martin told the local police that he had $7 when he left Rochelle and said that he had bought a number of drinks about town Saturday night, and had bought a quart and a half of whiskey to take home with him. The thugs took the whiskey and what money he had left.

When he notified the police of the robbery they began a search for his two companions, but were unable to locate them. The police later found a silver dollar near the scene of the holdup, and they believe the only thing taken from him was the whiskey, and that was probably taken in a drunken brawl.

EDWARD F. CAHILL

Ex-Assistant Postmaster, who was this morning named by the Commissioners of the City of Dixon to fill the unexpired term of Commissioner M. J. Gannon. The appointment of Mr. Cahill is especially fitting for, in addition to being entirely capable of filling the position, it is with a feeling of sentiment that he will succeed his late father-in-law.

Mr. Cahill is one of the most popular men in Dixon, and his appointment will meet the approval of the entire citizenship. For twenty-five years he was employed in the Dixon post office retiring a week ago to enter the real estate, insurance and loan business with former Postmaster William L. Frye as partner.

In their new business the two former government employees are prospering exceptionally. They are energetic, conscientious and popular, therefore their success in their new field is assured.

Lowden, former congressman from this district, will deliver an address in the interests of the Republican party nominees at the Family theater in this city next Monday night, the eve of the general election; and the announcement that Colonel Lowden is to be here insures the close of the Republican campaign with a blaze of glory.

The meeting will be made one of the biggest of recent years. The Dixon Marine band will furnish music during the early hours and all of

THOS. COLEMAN ACCIDENTALLY KILLED SUNDAY

WAS SHOT IN THE HEAD SOUTH OF AMBOY BY JOHN CARROLL.

TWO WERE HUNTING SQUIRREL

Gun Was Accidentally Discharged and Death Resulted Almost Instantaneously.

(Special to the Telegraph)

Amboy, Oct. 26.—Thomas Coleman, a former business man of Amboy, was accidentally killed about 12:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon by John Carroll, a young fellow with whom he was hunting about three miles southwest of the city.

Watching Squirrel.

The two were watching a squirrel in a tree, Carroll with the shot gun endeavoring to get in a position to get a shot, and with the victim on lower ground, about thirty feet from him.

In some unknown manner the gun was discharged, the charge striking Coleman in the side of the head, killing him almost instantly. Timothy Ackert and Charles Reinholdt, who were also hunting, were near when the gun was discharged and they rushed to give any possible aid, but Coleman died within a very few minutes after he was shot.

Carroll Prostrated.

The tragic outcome of the day's pleasure has prostrated young Carroll and he is in a critical condition, it having been found necessary to remove him to the hospital for treatment.

Inquest Today.

Coroner Stephan was summoned from Ashton and he will hold an inquest this morning.

KRAMERS STORE WAS BURGLARIZED

ENTRANCE MADE BY CUTTING A GLASS FROM WINDOW AT REAR.

The A. W. Kramer 5 and 10 cent store was broken into either Saturday or Sunday night. Entrance into the store was made by cutting out a half of one of the panes in a rear window. The glass was cut with a diamond and the work would seem to be that of an experienced man.

There was no money left at the store Saturday night so the burglar's plans in this regard were foiled. It is impossible to tell whether or not any other articles were taken from the store. The proprietor of the store was in Chicago today and did not know of the burglary until his return.

FIGHTING IN WEST FLANDERS MOST SEVERE.

London, Oct. 26.—All reports agree that the fighting in West Flanders has been the most terrible of any that has taken place thus far in the war.

Paris, Oct. 26.—Germany's great army of invasion assailed the allies with undiminished vigor at Dixmude, Reims, and near Pethune, France, and repulsed an attack by a large French force near Lille. The series of battles on both sides of the Belgian border have developed into a determined struggle for the possession of railway lines, so far without decisive result.

PHILLIPS FOR SHERIFF.

When Robert R. Phillips was nominated for the office of sheriff of Lee county by the republicans at the September primary, they favored him over two other men who are without question among the best known and highest characterized men in Lee county. What does that indicate? It indicates the eminent fitness of Robert Phillips for the duties of sheriff. He was opposed in the primaries by a former sheriff and he had to win his nomination from a former sheriff and member of the legislature and a former chairman of the Board of Supervisors. He won it, and the victory is a great credit to him.

Everybody likes "Bob" Phillips. His four years as chief deputy in the sheriff's office at Dixon have gained him a wide and loyal acquaintanceship throughout the length and breadth of the county. They know Bob Phillips for the fearless, energetic, conscientious officer that he is, and they know him for the kind-hearted, broad-gauged, true and upright man he is.

When election day comes—November third it is—and you are voting your ticket, make sure that you have voted for R. R. Phillips, for he is the man with the experience, the knowledge and the qualifications that are vitally necessary to that office. The sheriff's office in Lee county has been well conducted in the past and the people of this county want good conduct continued.

VOTE THE TICKET STRAIGHT.

If there were one man on the republican ticket this fall who did not come up to standard, the Telegraph would be failing in its duty as a newspaper to the people in advising its readers to vote the straight republican ticket, and the Telegraph has never and never will advocate the election of a full republican ticket when there is a single candidate in the list that is in any way unfit and not more capable of filling the office he seeks than his opponent. We would much rather see an efficient democrat or progressive elected to office than a republican not so efficient.

We are glad to be able to say to our readers now, however, that there is not a man on the republican ticket from top to bottom who we do not believe to be a more deserving candidate than his opponent is the other parties. We advise the voting of the straight republican ticket this fall, not for the sake of republicanism alone—that would be insufficient—but for the sake of county, state and nation.

ROBINS IS A SINGLE TAXER.

Raymond Robins is a single taxer and he has not denied it and he cannot deny it. Single tax means the placing of all taxes on lands and the land owners would pay the entire taxes of the nation. The taxes would be so high they would amount to as much as you could get from the land by farming it and so you would not care to continue to own your land. You would rather abandon it than pay the taxes. What do the farmers of Illinois think of a proposition such as this? Are they willing to vote for a candidate for the Senate of the United States who believes in such a plan? Or will they act on the principle of "safety first" and vote for Senator L. Y. Sherman?

THE AGONY NEARLY OVER WITH.

This is the last week of the campaign and the candidates are coming down the home stretch. The campaign managers are laying on the lash and there will be no effort spared between now and Tuesday of next week. The din of political rallies will echo over the middle west. Spellbinders will roar eulogies of the flag and work their arms like windmills and the smudge of campaign cigars will smell to Heaven.

During the long winter evenings when they have nothing else to do, will our dear city commissioners please work out a plan for the removal of city garbage?

High winds are a sort of discouragement to the energetic fellow who has raked all his leaves up. Now his lawn is covered with his neighbor's leaves.

They claim the Kaiser is crazy, but even if he is, he has a lot more of them over there almost crazy.

Eventually

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY
Why Not Now?

The Real Reason

By WALT MASON

"This war inevitable was," the candid monarch cries; "there's no use hunting for the cause, when it's before your eyes. For years and years, with frantic haste, we've piled up armament; and could we let it go to waste, the money we have spent? We've drilled about five million men, with endless pain and toil, and could we let them idly then go back and till the soil? Our colonels and the other chaps were all athirst for war, and asked us, 'If we can't have scraps, what are we drilling for?' You arm a man with guns and knives, and he for strife will groan, and he will take some others' lives, unless he drops his own. And we have armed until we limped beneath this burden punk; for years we've saved and slaved and skimmed to buy this warlike junk. We taxed the man of humble birth until he groaned aloud; we taxed him when he tilled the earth, we taxed him in his shroud. We robbed the farmer of his oats, the ditcher of his moq, despoiled the herdsman of his goats, to buy a modern gun. And having lined with trench and forts the rivers and the woods, we simply had to scrap, old sport, to show we had the goods."

VEST POCKET ESSAYS

Author of "At Good Old Siwash,"
By George Fitch.

Alfalfa is the greatest known breakfast food for cattle. It is a short curly plant looking like an overgrown clover and possesses a flavor which causes the most blasé cow to brighten up immediately and pass her plate for more.

Alfalfa is distinguished for the persevering manner in which it searches for water. When an alfalfa plant begins to grow it does not erect a beautiful and luxuriant superstructure which dries up and blows away with the first hot wind. It first gives its earnest attention to its roots. If water is scarce enough, an alfalfa plant will grow downward twenty feet before it grows upward any to speak of. Then while the corn withers and the tomato vine becomes exceedingly dejected, the alfalfa plant flourishes and gets out three editions of hay per year.

When an alfalfa plant is firmly established it is as hard to root out and eradicated as a Congressman who has been placing government appointments where they will do him the most good.

After a farmer has induced a 100-acre alfalfa field to grow blithely through the long hot summer, he leads a gay and careful life, skimming his field with a mower whenever he needs a new automobile, and piling up mountains of alfalfa which contribute cheerfully to the high price of meat by selling at $15 a ton. Our notion of the ideal employment is to hang around home all winter and spring reading a book, and then go out under a four-acre straw hat in the summer and bale up a few bonds in an alfalfa field. One man can almost always distinguish an alfalfa foreman in California by the careless way in which he lights his cigar from a bank note without looking at the denomination.

Alfalfa has made many farmers rich and happy, but the price of cattle continues to soar as if it were inflated with gas. What we need is more alfalfa. If all the highways of America were planted with alfalfa instead of dog fennel and thistles, perhaps there would be room in this distressingly prosperous country to pasture a few more exceedingly edible cows.

PFANSCHMIDT IS FOUND GUILTY OF SISTERS MURDER

JURY AT MACOMB DECIDES ONE CHARGE AGAINST HIM TODAY.

STILL HELD FOR OTHER DEATHS

Young Defendant Must Stand Trial for Death of Parents and Teacher.

(Associated Press)
Quincy, Ill., Oct. 26.—Ray Pfanschmidt, who was tried by a jury at Macomb for the alleged murder of his father, mother, sister and a young woman school teacher, was found not guilty as to the death of his sister, but is still held on charges of murder of the others.

Story of Crime.
Charles Pfanschmidt, his wife and daughter, and Emma Kaspen, a teacher who boarded at the Pfanschmidt home, were found dead in the burned residence, Sept. 29, 1912. They had been badly beaten and cut before the house was fired. Ray Pfanschmidt was accused of the murder, the prosecution alleging his motive to be to secure the insurance so he could be married.

On the first trial in Adams county he was found guilty and was sentenced to hang, but on a writ of error the case was taken to the supreme court and a new trial with a change of venue was granted.

MOTHER! THE CHILD IS COSTIVE, BILIOUS

If Tongue is Coated, Breath Bad, Stomach Sour, Don't Hesitate!

Give "California Syrup of Figs" at once—a teaspoonful today often saves a sick child tomorrow.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated, poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative" because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels, and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs"; then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Don't be fooled!

MRS. CARMAN IS RELEASED FROM JAIL

BROOKLYN JUDGE FIXES BONDS AT $25,000 THIS MORNING.

JURY 10 TO 2 FOR ACQUITTAL

Disagreement of Jurors Probably Means the Woman Will Not Be Tried Again.

(Associated Press)
New York, Oct. 26.—Mrs. Florence Carman, who was on trial at Mineola last week for the alleged murder of Mrs. Bailey, in which trial the jury disagreed, was today released under bonds of $25,000 at Brooklyn, and she at once started for her home in Freeport, L. I.

Mineola, L. I., Oct. 26.—The Carman trial struggled to an end at 11 o'clock in the morning when the jury, looking much haggard and considerably perturbed after thirteen hours and fifteen minutes of fruitless wrangling, came into the supreme court room and reported a disagreement. They had been ten for acquittal and two for conviction.

Mrs. Carman will be admitted to $25,000 bail today and released to go home a free woman except for the psychological bondage which will probably come from the knowledge of a murder indictment hanging over her head much as a noose might hang around her neck.

May Never Be Tried Again.
The present district attorney of Nassau county, however, says that he will never press the case to a re-trial unless new evidence comes to light from the general mystery.

Of course there were rumors that Dr. Carman and his wife are going to separate, and that one or the other of them will sue for a divorce. But these reports seemed to be dropped from the clouds or to be the simple product of the usual gossip mongers who always follow in the wake of domestic publicity.

Row Among Jurymen.

The principal spark of interest after the case had ended didn't, as a matter of fact, shine over Mrs. Carman, or Dr. Carman, or any of the leading persons in the trial, but over the jurymen whose deliberations, it developed, were accompanied by threats of mayhem and violence in general which must have enlivened considerably what otherwise would doubtless have been an extremely tedious argument.

Along about 7 o'clock in the morning one of the ten jurors who had stood firmly for acquittal, suggested that the best way to end the controversy would be to cast the person of James H. Aston, who vowed that while there was breath in his body he would not vote for an acquittal, out of the window.

Mr. Aston Calls a Bluff.
Mr. Aston, who is a manager for Putnam, the publisher, leaped to his feet and invited his assailant to step forward and try it. At this William G. Hovey, the second man for conviction, pushed his chair back, and hastening to Mr. Aston's side, added his voice to the invitation.

No one, however, seemed disposed to execute the threat, so after a few moments Messrs. Aston and Hovey dropped again into their chairs and the jurymen proceeded to glower at each other in silence for three hours. During this interval a couple of the men lapsed into somnolence thoroughly exhausted by their protracted vigil while Aston and Hovey, determined to stick by justice as they saw it, sat immovable and upright as the weary hours limped on.

First Ballot 9 to 3 for Acquittal.
The first ballot showed that nine were for acquittal and that three—Aston, Hovey and Marx Gottsch—were for conviction.

Dramatic Notes

FAMILY THEATRE

The Family theatre will run four reels of pictures this evening, which is the custom for the first three evenings of each week. The subjects for tonight are "A Change of Business," "The Cave of Death," in two parts, and "Memories of Men's Souls." The program has been selected with special care and the management wishes it understood that the prices are but five cents. On Thursday a big musical comedy of the Isle of Sables will open for four nights. Jas. A. Galvin of this city is interested in the piece.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Tonight the Princess will show two fine features, the first "The Sheriff of Muscatine," a Ray-Bee drama with Richard Stanton and Fannie Midgley in leading roles. This is a clever story of two desperadoes who rob the bank and postoffice at night after putting over a clever ruse on the sheriff by having a woman come to Muscatine posing as Bill Egan's mother after Bill has just been captured, and out of pity for Egan they let the two desperadoes have a room for the night and they escape. The picture is "The Cripple," a Thanhouser drama with an As You Like It ending, with Nolan Kane, Arthur Bauer and Lydia Mead in leading roles. This is a special feature that the Thanhouser Co. has put out, said to be excellent.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE

On tonight's program is the ninth episode in the Trey O' Hearts, in two reels. The acting in this series of pictures gets more thrilling in every installment; a person is certainly missing a treat by not seeing tonight's pictures. See George Larkin make the highest dive ever made while taking a moving picture, from the rigging of a ship; also the escape in a hydro-plane, intensely exciting all the way through. "38 Calibre Friendship" is a Nestor drama that keeps everybody on their toes all the way through, without a dull moment. Concluding the program is "The New Butler," an uproariously funny Jokers comedy.

FAMILY THEATRE

James Galvin, who recently organized a number of theatrical companies in this city, evidently believes in Dixon for he has arranged with Chicago's greatest stock company, The Sherman Stock company, to present plays here. They will open at this popular play house Nov. 16 for an indefinite period. The opening play, "Paid in Full," is a real city production such as always commands higher prices. Then will follow "The Wolf, Way Down East, Bought and Paid For" and other large attractions, all of which will be presented at popular prices.

Mr. Calvin also announces that John and Ella Calvin's company will open here Nov. 12, going from Dixon to the Colonial theatre, Chicago.

Mr. Galvin's big company of forty people, presenting The Bell Boy, are also rehearsing here.

Vote for Charles Eastman for Circuit Clerk.

Adam Cliffe, vote for him. Republican candidate from Sycamore, for State Senator.

WOMEN WERE TOO FREE WITH THEIR TRADE NEAR AMBOY.

Two women, members of a gypsy tribe which visited Amboy Friday evening were arrested by Sheriff Reid and Deputy Phillips northeast of Amboy Saturday. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Virgil and each was fined $25 on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The band while in Amboy, pled their occupation of fortune telling, and were ordered out of town by the police. Later one of the women members of the gang took her little boy to Dr. E. A. Sullivan for examination for an injury, and while the physician was making his examination she picked a five dollar bill from his vest pocket. He discovered his loss shortly and had a warrant issued for her arrest and with Deputy Sheriff Eddy located the woman, who immediately gave the money back.

Later it was learned that another member of the gang had extracted a ten dollar bill from a man's pocket-book while she was giving it the "gyp" good luck. The local authorities were then notified and located the kyspies, who had separated after leaving Amboy, and placed them under arrest with the above mentioned result.

More than 150 voters attended the Republican meeting at Lee Saturday evening. It was one of the best meetings held by the Republicans this campaign. Mr. Byers discussed the national issues; reviewed the history of the two great parties; pointed out where the Democratic party failed in its promises of two years ago.

Present Administration.

Mr. Edwards discussed state issues and reviewed in detail the first two years of the Dunne administration. He showed wherein the Democratic party of Illinois failed to live up to its promises. Mr. Edwards appealed to the voters of Willow Creek to support Sherman for United States senator. He spoke highly of the legislative candidates and of John C. McKenzie, candidate for congress. He spoke for the county ticket and urged the election of every man on the ticket, and then closed his excellent address in order that the county candidates might speak for themselves.

Besides the speakers, Messrs. Edwards and Byers, the candidates present were: John B. Crabtree, Fred G. Dimick, John E. Moyer, Robert Phillips, Prof. L. W. Miller, and Edwards Rosecrans of Ashton. Each of these gentlemen spoke briefly.

Elliott maintains a taxicab office and had started for his home about midnight. As he neared the Third street arch, he heard a crack of a revolver and a bullet whizzed by his head striking the pavement just beside the machine. Mr. Elliott was so taken aback that he stopped his machine but then his presence of mind returned and he threw on all speed and got away.

The police were notified and are conducting a still search for the offender, who is believed to be the same party or parties in the incidents of this kind last week.

CHAPTER XLII.

The Trail of Flying Hoof-Prints.

In the still air of that young day the chill of night lingered stubbornly—and would until the shadow of the eastern rampart had crept slowly down the canyon's western wall, telescoped upon itself and vanished, letting in the sun to make the place a pit of torment and of burning.

Refreshed from rest and exhilarated by this grateful coolness, his horse responded willingly to the first light touch of Alan's spur. In a twinkling the overnight camp dropped from view behind the rounded shoulder of a hillside, mesquite-cloaked.

Then from its first spirited flight the horse settled down to steady going, lengthened its stride, and ran for leagues with the long, apparently effortless and tireless lope of the plains-bred broncho, ventre-a-terre.

Alan's departure from camp had anticipated by a round quarter-hour the appearance on the upper trail of friends of the slain bandit, to the number of four or five, who had both discovered and recovered his body, called his death murder and pledged themselves to its avengement—laying responsibility for the putative crime at the door of the man and woman to be seen in the canyon, immediately below the scene of Hopi Jim's fall.

Between the moment when discovery of the men on the ridge trail interrupted their simple and hurried breakfast and that which found Rose and Barcus mounted on the back of their own horse and making the best of their way down the canyon in pursuit of Alan, but little time had elapsed.

And even with its double burden, their horse made better time upon the broad lower level than those who followed the ridge trail. By mid-morning, when they approached the foothills that ran down to the desert; the pursuit was more than a mile in the rear and shut off to boot by a monolithic hill, while Alan was many a weary mile in advance.

He sat upon his horse, just then, at standstill upon the summit of a rounded knoll, the Painted hills lifting up behind him, the desert before unfolding like a map—but like a map all blurred.

Only in the near foreground was anything definite to be distinguished in the aspect of that sunbitten waste—bleached earth patterned in almost orderly arrangement by sagebrush and gnarled cacti. At the distance of half a mile all blended into one vast plain of glaring gray that stretched over the round of the world to a broken wall of purple hills that reeled drunkenly in the haze-veiled southwest.

Was Judith out there, somewhere, lost, defenseless, forlorn, impotent to lift a hand to shield her face from the blast of that savage sun?

Staring beneath a shading hand, he discerned nothing that moved upon the surface of the desert but its myriad heat-devils jiggling monotonously their infernal danse macabre.

Or—as seemed more probable—was she back there among the Painted hills, lying still and lifeless, crushed beneath the weight of that fallen horse?

No rest for Alan till he knew . . . Descending the knoll he reined his lagging mount back into the trail, following its winding course through the foothills and round the base of that monolithic mountain toward the junction with the ridge trail, miles away.

It approached the hour of noon before he gained the point where the two trails joined and struck out across the desert. And here he discovered what he thought indisputable indication that the fright of Judith's horse had persisted.

Abandoning immediately all notion of returning through the hills by the ridge-trail, he turned and swung away at the best pace he could spur from his broncho, delivering himself into the pitiless embrace of that implacable wilderness of sun and sand.

At long intervals he would check the broncho and, reeling in his saddle, endeavor to sweep the desert with his binoculars.

And toward the middle of the afternoon he fancied that something rewarded one such effort; something for an instant swam athwart the field of the glasses; something that seemed to move like a weary horse with a human figure bound to its back.

But now the phenomena were discernible which, had he been more desert-wise, would have made him pause and think before he ventured farther from those hills, already beyond reach as they were.

His first appreciated warning came when the surface of the desert seemed to lift and shake like the top of a canvas tent in a gale. At the same time a mighty gust of wind swept athwart the waste, hot as a furnace-blast. In a trice dust enveloped man and horse, a stifling cloud of superheated particles that stung the flesh like a myriad needles. And then darkness fell, the twilight of hades, a copper-colored pall. Nothing remained visible beyond arm's length.

CARRANZA WILL BE DEPOSED IN CONFAB

Zapata and Villa Envoys Agree at Aguas Calientes.

Aguas Calientes, Mex., Oct. 26.—General Carranza will be deposed as first chief of the constitutionalists and as acting provisional president when the peace conference reconvenes here today.

This, according to unofficial announcement, will be accomplished through an agreement between the Villa and the Zapata delegates to the conference. Twenty-eight delegates representing Emiliano Zapata, the southern revolutionist, will be added to the convention roll when the sessions are resumed. They have come by request of General Villa and will act with the Villa delegates.

It is claimed that Carranza delegates, learning of the agreement, have decided to refrain from taking any further part in the conference.

THIEVES GET HAUL BY TRICK

Daylight Robber Takes Nearly $1,500 From Saloon Safe.

Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 26.—Thieves have made another good "haul" in Terre Haute. Their work was done in daylight and their profits amount to between $1,200 and $1,500. Andy Baitan, saloon keeper at Fourth and Ash streets, is the victim.

Baitan drew a large amount of money from the bank to be ready to cash checks on pay day and placed it in the safe in his saloon. Some time later, while he was at dinner, his bartender was called to the street by the driver of an express wagon, who said he had a package for the proprietor.

While the bartender was arguing that the package did not belong to his employer, a confederate of the man on the wagon, who had been hanging about the place, opened the safe, took the money and left by a rear door. The expressman finally drove away and later the horse and wagon, which had been hired from a local livery stable, were returned to the barn, having been abandoned on a nearby street.

TOWN'S MAIL IN B'G JUMP

Handful of Fifty People Sends Twenty-five Tons of Bulbs Daily.

Washington, Oct. 26.—According to a statement of the post office department the amendment of the parcel post regulations remitting the shipment of plants and bulbs at the regular parcel post rates will increase postal business at Yonges Island, S. C., a little town of not more than fifty people, from a total of about $5,000 a year to more than $20,000 a day. Officials of the postal service regard this "as an interesting and significant illustration of the larger public service which the parcel post is being called upon to perform with each new month of its existence."

During the coming season of heavy traffic the shipments of bulbs and plants at Yonges Island are expected to aggregate twenty-five tons a day. Yonges Island is at present an office of the third class with one star and one rural attached to it.

OUR BOYS and GIRLS

THE SHADOW GAME.

The station was deserted but for one man who seemed absorbed in a newspaper. The ticket agent was apparently thinking of things far away as he deftly juggled coins on the glass plate under the bars of his cage.

The next morning the man with the newspaper was seeming to read it in another station and the ticket agent of the day before was hunting a job. He had been summarily dismissed.

The man with a newspaper was a detective. The ticket agent had been practicing to win facility in working the shadow game, hence his dismissal.

What's the shadow game? A new trick said to have originated in the brain of a Boston subway ticket seller and to have been taught to other ticket sellers over the country, and this is how it is worked:

The ticket agent arranges a strip of cardboard or black paper so that it will seem to be a shade to keep the bright light out of his eyes. In reality he so arranges it that it leaves the space directly under the change slot brightly illuminated, but casts a deep shadow upon the plate just to the left. Then he practises until he acquires sufficient dexterity to pass out half a dozen coins; make one of them stop well over under the shadow and bunch the others under the bright light.

About one person in four will fall to see the nickel or dime in the shadow, and in his haste to get a train will not miss it till it is too late to return. If he does come back the coin is there for him to pick up and he sees no cause to complain. If he does not return the ticket seller adds one more coin to his income.

Some men are said to be so adept at putting coins into the dark that the sharpest eyes fail to detect the trick. A ticket seller at a busy station who was caught by a detective recently confessed that he had been stealing an average of $3 a day under the shadow.

The Sky Telegram.

A gentleman while buying a paper from a newsboy, one day, said: "Well, my boy, do you ever find it hard work to be good?"

"Yes, sir," responded the little fellow.

"Well, so do I. But I have found out how to get help; do you want to know how?"

"Yes, sir."

"Then just send a telegram."

The boy looked up in amazement. The gentleman touched the boy's forehead with his finger and said:

"What do you do in there?"

"Think!" said the boy.

"Well can God see what you think?"

"I suppose He can."

"Yes, He can and does. Now, when you want help to sell newspapers, or you want to be a good boy, you just send a telegram this way: Just think this thought quickly, 'Jesus help me,' and God will see it and send the help."

A few weeks later he met the same little newsboy on the street, who rushed up to him and said: "Say, mister, I've been trying the sky telegram the last few weeks, and I've sold more papers since I've been doing that than I ever did before."

TO BE MEXICAN PRESIDENT.

GEN. ANTONIO VALLAHERAL

This is General Villareal, who in all probability will be chosen president of Mexico, having been nominated by the military convention composed of Carranza and Villa sympathizers at Aguascalientes. He has been one of the constitutionalists of influence since the revolution against Huerta began. At this time he is governor of Nuevo Leon. By the choice of Villareal General Villa and General Carranza are both eliminated from the coming election. Villa has succeeded in doing what he has long aimed at—keeping Carranza out of the presidency.

Secretary Daniels, speaking on "The Spirit of the Wilson Administration," characterized that spirit as essentially one of peace.

WILD MAN LOOSE IN ILLINOIS

McHenry County Freak Escapes Posses of Seventy-five Officers.

Bloomington, Ill., Oct. 26.—Illinois has a real wild man. He is prowling through the underbrush of McHenry and adjacent counties, eluding Sheriff Henderson and a posse of seventy-five deputies.

The man is described as being six feet tall, having long hair and beard, is bare footed and attired only in a tattered coat and overalls. He is said to be armed with a hammer and razor. Although he has fled at the sight of all human beings, the women and children of the rural districts are becoming hysterical for fear that with the approach of winter he will make an attack upon some farm house in the absence of the men folks. Twice parties of hunters have seen the wild man and attempted his capture, but he escaped.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Your Hair Gets Soft, Silky, Fluffy and Luxuriant At Once.

If you care for heavy hair, that glows with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is glossy and lustrous, try Danderuff.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderuff at any drug store or toilet counter; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this was the best investment you ever made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderuff. If eventually—why not now?

If you have pain through the small of your back, urinary disorders, headaches, dizzy spells, or are nervous and depressed, start treating the kidneys with a tested kidney remedy.

Doan's Kidney Pills have been proved good and are especially for weak kidneys. Doan's have been used in kidney trouble for over 50 years. Here is convincing proof of merit. It comes from this locality. Mrs. J. H. Boehm, 906 Fourth Ave., Sterling, Ill., says: "We have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for years, and think they are the best kidney remedy to be had. Although I never had occasion to use Doan's Kidney Pills myself, I can confirm the public statement I gave some years ago in their favor. One of the family had trouble from his back and kidneys. The kidney action was irregular and his back hurt him. Finally, he used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Perry's Drug Store, and they gave him relief."

The above is not an isolated case. Mrs. Boehm is only one of many in this vicinity who have gratefully endorsed Doan's. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. Boehm recommends. 50c all stores. ## PISTOL MAY SOLVE HOLDUPS

Suspect's Revolver Identified by Wash. Agent.

Danville, Ill., Oct. 26.—A revolver found in the possession of Elmer Byrd, accused by federal authorities of robbing interstate traffic cars at the Big Four freight house, may solve mysterious hold-ups of the Wabash railway station at State Line ten days ago, the robbing of the Chicago, Indiana & Southern station at Allison the same night, and may clear up the post office robberies at Romney, Ind., and Scotland, Ill., the following night. The revolver was identified by W. C. Beard, agent for the Wabash, as his property. Byrd is reported to have confessed to the Wabash railway robbery, naming two accomplices. One of these, Roy Allison, has been arrested. Both are under twenty-five years of age. A black touring car was used in the robberies, but this has not yet been located.

RESERVE BANKS TO OPEN NOV. 16

Secretary McAdoo Holds Fast for Original Date.

URGED BY COTTON SITUATION

Directors of Reserve Banks at Recent Meeting Voted 37 to 25 Favoring Nov. 30 as Opening Date—Secretary Says New System Will Aid Country.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Announcement is made by Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo that the new banking system will become operative throughout the United States on Nov. 16. On that date the twelve federal reserve banks located by the organization in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston, St. Louis, Richmond, San Francisco, Cleveland, Kansas City, Minneapolis, Atlanta and Dallas will be established. At the same time the new reserve requirements for national banks as prescribed by the law will become effective, thus reducing, according to Secretary McAdoo, more than $400,000,000 of reserve money and increasing the credit facilities of the banks of the United States by that amount.

Will Put Country in Better Condition. In the opinion of Mr. McAdoo the early establishment of the new banking system will ease up the money situation in the United States, strengthen its credits and put the country in a better shape to cope with the problem involved in the indebtedness of this country to Great Britain. This opinion is shared by other officials of the administration and by leaders in congress.

In directing that the new system be instituted on Nov. 16 Mr. McAdoo acted contrary to the wishes of the directors of the reserve banks expressed at the recent meeting held in Washington. In his address to the directors Mr. McAdoo suggested that it would be a good thing for the country as a whole if the system could be established as early as Nov. 16. Many of the directors, notably those from Chicago and St. Louis, objected to the date recommended by Secretary McAdoo, suggesting that they would not be ready to begin business by that time. The question was put up to the directors, and by a vote of 37 to 25 they indicated a preference for Nov. 30.

Cotton Situation Pressing. In a statement announcing No. 16 as the date upon which the federal reserve act shall become effective Mr. McAdoo explained that he was persuaded to his decision because of the emergency conditions in the south brought on by the inability of that section to market its cotton. The federal reserve act imposes on the secretary of the treasury the duty of deciding when the new system shall become effective. After consideration of all the facts Secretary McAdoo decided to make the day Nov. 16.

MILWAUKEE EXPLORER BACK

Captain Nahmens, Given Up for Lost in Arctic, Has Returned.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 26.—After eluding scores of newspaper men, Capt. Wm. Nahmens, a member of the Stefansson Arctic expedition who had been given up for lost several months ago, and a former Milwaukeean, has reached his home here. Captain Nahmens was sailing master of the expedition sent out by the British government to search for a race of white Eskimos. Many of the men in the expedition including four Oxford professors and one each from Harvard and Yale, have been missing for months.

In a vain effort to locate their companions, Captain Nahmens and two other survivors cruised about in an open boat surrounded by ice for thirty-nine days. Many hardships were undergone and one of the men, crazed by the strain, committed suicide. Worn out and nearly starved, Captain Nahmens and his companion finally reached Nome. Captain Nahmens absolutely refused to discuss his Arctic experiences and will depart after two days for San Francisco to start anew for the Arctic region.

FOE IS IN FLIGHT, SAY RUSS

Germans Forty Miles From Warsaw—Czar Crosses Vistula.

Petrograd, Oct. 26.—Germany's army of invasion, which attempted to besiege Warsaw, has been driven forty miles west of Warsaw, according to an official announcement by the general staff. The czar's troops have resumed a vigorous offensive movement all along the battle line. Desperate attacks by the Austrians to force the passage of the San river have been repulsed by the Russians.

The czar's advance columns have crossed the Vistula river above the Iljanka and are now pursuing the Austro-German forces which had attempted to bar the passage of the stream.

EVAN L. REED

FIGHTER FOR GOOD GOVERNMENT.

FRIEND OF THE WORKINGMEN

Evan L. Reed, Progressive candidate for the legislature, is the type of man who should be elected for the making of laws. He has been in public life but not as an office seeker, all his life, fighting for clean politics and good government. He possesses moral courage of a high order and when he has made up his mind that he is in the right neither money, influence or popular disfavor can deter him. And time has always vindicated him in any fight that he has made. He has political visions and faith in the people and is "willing to kick the bricks" until the electorate work around to his way of thinking.

As an editor, student and manufacturer, he has familiarized himself with the needs of the people and knows what laws are required. His workingmen swear by him. As he can write as well as talk, the people of this district will know that they have a representative when he is sent to Springfield.—Sterling Standard.

Non-Progressives wishing to vote for Reed for the Legislature put a cross in your party circle and a cross opposite his name on the Progressive ticket, thus:

Germans Lose Three New Batteries on Meuse.

FIGHT IS FOR RAILWAY LINES

 the River Meuse region destroyed three new German batteries of heavy artillery.

Along the River Oise the French and British defeated the Germans who delivered a furious onslaught against the positions held by the allies. The Kaiser's soldiers were compelled to retreat and to abandon their first line of trenches.

Control of the highways between Varennes and the River Aisne is now firmly held by the French in spite of determined efforts of the Germans to retake the village of Melzicourt.

Paris Admits Germans Cross Yser. Paris, Oct. 26.—The official communique issued at night says:

"The battle continues in the same conditions as the preceding days. The battle is very violent between Neuport and the River Lys. German forces have been able to cross the Yser between Neuport and Dixmude. West and south of Lille lively attacks by the enemy have been repulsed.

"Between the Oise and the Argonne forest there is nothing new to report beyond some slight advances by our troops northwest of Soissons and in the Caronne district. On the heights of the Meuse an artillery duel is in progress. In the Woivre our artillery commands today the road from Thiaucourt to Nensard, to Buxerulles and Weinville, which is one of the principal German lines of communication toward St. Mihiel.

"It is announced that in the Argonne forest yesterday an entire German infantry regiment was annihilated during an engagement in the forest north of Jachalade."

French Make Important Advance.

The distance by road from St. Mihiel to Thiaucourt is about nineteen miles. Thiaucourt is about twelve miles from the German frontier. The road runs northeast from St. Mihiel, the fort held by the Germans, and crosses two important railroad lines. Thiaucourt itself is an important railroad center. It is on the direct railway from Metz to Commercy.

From St. Mihiel to Weinville, almost directly east, is five and a half miles. Buxerulles is one and a quarter miles further on, toward the north. Nensard is six and a quarter miles from Buxerulles and from Nensard it is six and a quarter miles to Thiaucourt.

The official communique issued in the afternoon is as follows:

"There is no marked change between the sea and the region about Arras.

"In the Argonne region our situation is being maintained under the same conditions as those announced yesterday.

"On the heights of the Meuse, our field artillery has destroyed three new German batteries, one of which was of large calibre."

PARIS IN PANIC OVER DEFEAT, SAYS BERLIN

Submarine U-9 Is Boat That Sank the Hawke.

Berlin, Oct. 26.—(By wireless to Seyville, L. I.)—Reports from Paris give the information that the publishing of the official war bulletin Saturday night caused a panic. The French admit that they are in retreat between the sea and the La Basse canal and mention weak German attacks near Arras.

It is learned here that it was the German submarine U-9 which sank the British cruiser Hawke in the North sea on Oct. 15 by a torpedo attack. This is the submarine which earlier in the war sank the British cruiser Cressy, Aboukir and Hogue. Official announcement is made that the enveloping movement which the allies for a month have been directing against the German right flank movement northward and westward has been stopped.

The Imperial army has pushed the enemy slowly back in a southward course.

Reports from the eastern theater of war indicate that the fighting in this theater is still of an indecisive phase. The Austrian staff headquarters reports that the battle is continuing before Przemyel, where the battle front now assumes the shape of a crescent and 5,300 Russians have been taken prisoners.

The total number of prisoners confined in Germany as reported Oct. 21 is now given as 5,401 officers and 21,468 men, including six French, eighteen Russian and three Belgian generals.

ISLAND MYSTERY IS CLEARED

Household Possessions Belonged to Man Whose Skiff Was Wrecked.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 24.—The mystery surrounding the finding of what was thought to be a deserted camp on Gabaret island, north of Venice, when a woman's and child's clothing, a pair of opera glasses and a marriage certificate were found on the beach of the island, was cleared up in East St. Louis by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Washam of that city. Washam was bringing a small skiff from Baden, Mo., to St. Louis when waves from a river steamer upset his boat on the beach of the island. The articles found, he says, were strewn along the shore. He swam to the shore he says, and since then had not found time to return and get his belongings.

Washam had sent his wife and child from Baden, Mo., to St. Louis on a car and was taking their possessions down the river in the skiff when the accident occurred.
